Attendee Feedback

“The event was extremely helpful in getting close enough to see the new technologies, speak with their promoters, touch its products, and have the opportunity to discuss it and ask questions, The event was very rich and encouraging, and I am interested in attending future events.”

“It was so nice to have all the different vendors under one roof – between packaging and start-ups, there was something for everyone there.”

“I literally brought my friend on the 10th as a result of my experience on the 9th.”

“I am very happy with my experience and already recommended two colleagues, plus I’m still working with the people I met there.”

“We have met new suppliers for packaging that offer exactly what we needed.”
